Lightning Rods.

The only Patent which affords absolute Protection against Lightning, as demonstrated by science and experience.

This Rod has been extensively used throughout the Southern & Western States, West Indies and the Canadas, since 1843, and through it has been struck in hundreds of instances, it has never failed to protect.

The great amount of damage done recently by lightning has called attention, as it should, to the protection of buildings by the use of Lightning Conductors. It is all important that the rod used should be one that will give protection, and in putting up it should be done by one having experience in the business.

The Democratic State Convention—Controlled by Federal Office Holders—Its Infamous Servility to the South.

Never was a political convention so purely and so entirely under the control and management of federal office holders, as the one which assembled at Augusta on the 30th ult. and denominated itself "democratic." It was a body of men, the most of them the mere creatures of the Buchanan administration and assembled there by command of that administration, to give an endorsement from the [illegible] of Maine to the pro slavery policy and action of the party as managed by the leaders at the South. Yes! The democratic party of Maine has been required to read its unreserved endorsement of the doings of the pro-slavery oligarchy through the tools at Washington. And those who have brought the Democratic State Convention to this humiliating pass at command of the federal administration, are the Collectors, Postmasters, and Deputies in this Republican [illegible] of the State, led on by that notorious traitor to freedom, Hoyta McLenale, and by [illegible] office brokers like Hannah B. S. Mose (who hunted from Canada, where at Govt [illegible], he is disgracing the country by exacting $25,000 or 30,000 in a [illegible] heretofore unknown, upon the commerce of the people of Maine and of the North,) by Fergil H. Partis, who had a rich Navy Agency at Portsmouth, N. H., but who comes down to Maine at the command of his master, to aid in crushing out any free spirit which might appear in the Convention—and by District Attorneys and U. S. Marshals, who were as zealous in crushing freedom in the resolutions and action of the Convention, as they would be in hunting down and restoring fugitive slaves—for a consideration.

The main argument which the speakers and the resolutions of this office holders' convention addressed to the people of Maine appears to have been that which was enunciated by the organs in this State when the Fishing Bounty repeal passed the Senate, viz. that MAINE MUST BOW DOWN AND WORSHIP THE SLAVE POWER, IF SHE WOULD SAVE HER NAVIGATING AND FISHING INTERESTS FROM A VENGEFUL DESTRUCTION. With hardly an attempt to disguise it in the language used, this insulting demand was met full upon the people of Maine by the Democratic State Convention—"SUBMIT TO THE DEMANDS OF SLAVERY—AGREE TO THE RIGHT OF SLAVERY EXTENSION UNDER THE CONSTITUTION!"—or your cities, your navigation and your commercial interests shall be sacrificed!"

We say this is, in plain words, precisely what Buchanan office holders mean when they resolve as follows:

Resolved, That we have witnessed within the past few years with mortification and regret the rapid decay of the political power of our State in the national councils, which is the inevitable consequence of the narrow and sectional spirit manifested by her Black Republican Senators and Representatives in Congress who, in waging an unconstitutional and unfruitful war upon the institutions of sister states are impotent to protect the interests of our own, and IF WE WOULD NOT SPEEDILY EXPERIENCE THE UTTER EXTINCTION OF THAT POWER which, until recently, made the wishes of the people of Maine the law of the Union [illegible] matters pertaining to commerce, it is our duty to commit all those interests which depend upon national legislation to the hands of men of broad national views, WHO, HAVING HEARD FOR THE INSTITUTIONS AND INTERESTS OF OTHER STATES WILL BE THE CERTAIN PROTECTION OF THOSE OF OUR OWN!

Their mouthpiece, the pro-slavery sentiment of policy, to avert the vengeance of the South was also the most prominent topic of the speeches. Wyman B. S. Moor, with shameless front, and pockets bursting with fat government black mail levied upon our commerce, rose in the Convention and dictated to the people of Maine what they must do to "protect" their commerce. He falsely and maliciously accused the Republicans of waging a war with the South, and then whiningly proceeded to tell the people that "they must touch nothing, "and it could not exist and be made profitable "unless the South was permitted to [illegible] "terests and institutions"—and finally, in substance, THAT WE (THE PEOPLE OF MAINE) EXIST UPON THE PATRONAGE OF THE SOUTH, AND SHOULD BECOME PAUPERS WITHOUT IT! "We "had opposed the South until we had [illegible]

"votes in the National Halls," and we must elect men who would do so no longer, if we wanted to save our interests.

Freemen of Maine! This is the sort of stuff addressed to you by the minions of a corrupt and pro-slavery administration, and the leaders and managers of a degraded party. You are asked to GET DOWN IN THE DUST, AND LICK THE FEET OF THE SLAVE POWER—in order to propitiate its sovereign favor. WILL YOU DO IT? Or will you bury the party, with its vile principles and its propositions, DEEPER THAN EVER IN BURYING!

THE WHEAT CROP.—A ride through parts of Franklin and adjoining counties has enabled us to see the wheat fields. Never have we beheld such [illegible] crops of this grain. The heavy ears hang [illegible] in golden waves, and the [illegible] has already begun. In this part of the state the crop is heavier than it has been for some years, and the weather is rapidly ripening it.—Columbus, Ohio, States man, 27th

"The Cape Girardeau, Missouri, Democrat says— "The farmers in this county are busy just now putting in their crops. This is the 19th of June, and yet the corn is not planted. Our soil is so fine and vegetation so rapid that with a favorable season, a splendid crop will yet be raised."

THE SEIZURE OF CRUISERS.—The Times Havana correspondent says, the commander of the Vabiah and the British Vice Admiral in Jamaica, and learned from him every assurance of the speedy cessation of further visits from her Majesty's cruisers, accompanied with the positive denial of said cruisers having received orders to search American vessels. He further stated that the commanders of the Jas. or, [illegible] and Styx would be held to a strict account of their doings.

THE MACKEREL CATCH.—The Hyannis [illegible] says that the catch of mackerel up to the present time has not been a quarter of what it was at this date. The intelligence comes from all the [illegible] of the Cape.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE.—James [illegible] [illegible] McAuley, [illegible] [illegible] years ago to California, leaving a family behind. During last week a gentleman presented himself at the [illegible] house, representing himself as McAuley, and said that he was just on his way and was unable to walk home. A citizen kindly volunteered to take the sick man to his supposed family. He was taken to a neighborhood where his wife (as he claimed) lived. The wife was sent for. She came, but looked and utterly refused to recognize him. She said he was an impostor, there being no resemblance between him and her husband. The gentleman did not [illegible] to relate a minute account of his life with his wife and children, all he was not [illegible] and seemed to know almost every little [illegible] that would be supposed McAuley ought to know. The family and brothers, still refused to recognize him, and he is now in [illegible] [illegible] of money. What adds to the mystery is the whole affair, is the seeming interest of his whole story. He knows all her old neighbors and every family, and their history, yet she fails to recognize him. Some of the neighbors say it is McAuley.

[illegible] case is since resolved—the person claiming to be the genuine [illegible] Auley having been identified as a brother of the absent man. All married men will doubtless be strongly interested in this result, showing as it does that a woman does not so easily forget her husband, [illegible] six years' absence.]

Another of those Sandian deeds which cry [illegible] Heaven for vengeance upon the [illegible] race, has just been publicly [illegible] among the Mormon People, reached us. The [illegible] of a man living in the vicinity of Salt Lake City, who [illegible] of the [illegible], [illegible] supposing a young, amiable and beloved wife, beloved by all who knew her. Somewhat superior to the common mass, [illegible] [illegible] early education—the same [illegible] awakened at the subject [illegible] of those [illegible] the very [illegible] of her soul, and determined, if possible, to make her [illegible] to resent the camp of the [illegible]. Her husband got some hints of it. He [illegible] to her house, rode to Brigham's office, and asked his brother Brigham what he should do with her. Brigham told him to cut her throat, and thus save her from eternal damnation. The brute went home and told the poor woman to prepare to die. The [illegible] of his intention, fell at his feet, begging and imploring him for mercy; but while she was thus kneeling, he seized her by the hair, and cut her head off from her ear. This example was afterwards held up to the Mormon women in [illegible] as a warning to them.—Tri [illegible] letter from [illegible]

The American Tract Society has resolved to do nothing which can, by any possibility, give offence to slave holders. This is "for peace." The tract society is not the first body that has [illegible] that example. The Whig party tried it. [illegible] and the Whig party ceased to exist. The Democratic party tried it. The Democratic party [illegible] it. The Methodist Conference tried it. It split them in two. The Presbyterian Assemblies tried it. It tore them to pieces. Tried by Mr. Fillmore's Administration, it [illegible] a political grave. Tried by Gen. Pierce's administration, it has [illegible] them. [illegible] number of northern men [illegible] in 1856, taking a pledge to try it [illegible] [illegible] it [illegible] never gave them a [illegible] [illegible] religious, literary and political, have tried it [illegible]. But which of them has [illegible] by it peace or profit?—Albany Eve Journal.

SALUTARY RESULTS FROM SMOKING WEEDS.—We observe that the [illegible] destructive insects have begun their ravages in several neighborhoods. A gentleman in whom we have the utmost confidence, informs us that they may be destroyed in this simple manner. Take a [illegible] upon [illegible] pole, dip it in tar, set fire to it, and hold it under the tree when the wind is still, or to the windward when the wind is blowing gently, so that the smoke from the burning tar will pass thoroughly through the branches. By this means the worms are suffocated and killed. This remedy was accidentally discovered, and has been [illegible] in practice in Eaton and the vicinity with the most beneficial results. A plan so simple as this, and one which promises to be so effective, should be at once tried by every one whose trees are at all affected. N. E. Farmer.

GREAT DESTRUCTION OF MANUFACTURING [illegible].—The Providence Journal says that the great works of Philip Allen & Sons were sold at auction on Tuesday for $125,000. The estate was first offered in two lots, the largest of which, [illegible] at $75,000, for which there was no bid. The whole was then put up together, [illegible] $110,000, and was bid off at $125,000 to the Woonsocket Company. The principal building was the house of A. & W. Sprague. The whole cost of the works was probably not less than $734,000.

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

The services at the Methodist Chapel on Pine street will not be, next Sunday, precisely as they were announced on last Sabbath. In the morning, at the usual time of divine service the Lord's Supper will be administered, closing with a brief address from the pastor. In the afternoon Dr. Tefft will deliver a discourse in reference to the day, or the Connection between Christianity and Civil Liberty.

FIRE.—About 10 o'clock last evening a fire broke out in a building on Hancock Street, occupied as a Grocery by Thomas M'Dermott, thickly surrounded by Irish shops and houses. For a time an extensive conflagration was threatened for although there was fortunately no wind the reservoirs in the vicinity soon failed. From M'Dermott's shop the fire extended in three directions—and four or five other buildings were burned. They were owned by Edward Dowd, P. M'Manus and three orphan children by the name of Feeney, and perhaps by several others, all of them occupied by two or three families each.

Among those burned out were Mr. M'Guire and Mr. M'Growley; but we were unable to ascertain the names of others last night. There was probably but little or no insurance.

The stable attached to the mansion house of Patrick Ward, Esq., the old McGaw place on Washington Street,) was for a long time in imminent danger, but was saved by the perseverance of the firemen.

The fire caught in the shed attached to McDermott's house, and was caused by carelessness in smoking hams.

From ten to fifteen families are rendered houseless by this conflagration.

As the wind subsided yesterday, the fires in the woods also subsided to a considerable degree. In the vicinity of Pushaw however, the fire continued to spread. A lot of cord wood belonging to Mr. McQuestion was burned yesterday, we understand.

A Dramatic entertainment will be given by a Young Men's Association at Bucksport on the evening of the Fifth. "The Seven Clerks," "The Irish Yankee" and the "Stage Struck Yankee" are the pieces to be performed.

The Aroostook County embraces an area of one hundred and sixty five townships of six miles square, as stated in debate in the Legislature last winter. This is an area about as large as the whole of Massachusetts, and to have this whole region peopled with an intelligent, thriving, prosperous and happy people, is now one of the great enterprises which attracts attention and should secure effort.—Kennebec Journal

Mr. D. Estabrook, of this city, was yesterday committed to the care of Mr. Gilman by the authorities. He has been insane for some days, and the Asylum at Augusta is so full that no more patients can be received.

The Sunday Schools connected with the Unitarian and Swedenborgian Societies, made an excursion to Hermon Pond yesterday forenoon, by a special train, filling three cars. In the afternoon, an accession was made to their numbers in the 3 o'clock train. One of the most beautiful days of the season, a gentle breeze from the north, tempering the brilliant sunshine, gave zest to the rural enjoyment of the occasion. The party returned by the 7.20 evening train. Among the incidentals of the excursion were quantities of delicious strawberries.

Levi Cashe, Esq., has been appointed Post-master of Lubec, in place of Sabine H. Kimball resigned.

The family of the Rev. S. L. Caldwell, late pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city, left town yesterday morning, to join him at his new home in Providence, where he has been for two weeks past. The society over which he has been a faithful shepherd for twelve years past, have not yet engaged a successor.

EARLY PEAS. Mr. Marden of this city has shown us some green peas, fully grown, which he picked on the 29th ult.

PRETTY EARLY. Mr. Warren Weeks of Farmington sent "string beans" of his own raising to the editor of the Chronicle on the 30th of June.

STABBING AFFRAY. Thursday afternoon, two men coming ashore in a boat from a vessel in our harbor, got into an altercation, when one of them named Daniel George, drew a knife and stabbed his adversary inflicting a severe wound in the wrist, severing the cords, when he threw his knife overboard. George was arrested by the police, examined yesterday before the Police Court, and bound over for trial in August, in the sum of $300.

MILITARY. An Artillery Company has been organized in Wilton, Franklin County, with the following officers:—Nathan L. Holly, Captain; Lewis Adams, 1st Lieutenant; Dearborn G. Heath, 2d Lieutenant; Chas. K. Adams, 3d Lieutenant; Hiram F. Weymouth, 4th Lieutenant.

MILITARY BALL.—The Belfast Artillery will give a Military Ball, at Pierce's Hall, on the evening of the 5th, which will doubtless be a very pleasant gathering.

There is to be a Firemen's Celebration at Meadow's Hills on Monday; and a Sons of Temperance celebration at West Waterville. At Rockland, a Military and Firemen's celebration.

Young, the accomplice of Burnham in the Belfast mail robbery, has been transferred from the Portland to the Auburn jail, where he will serve out his fifteen years' term of confinement. The State Prison at Thomaston is too full to accommodate the U. S. criminals.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS.—The glorious shower of rain with which we were favored on Tuesday and Wednesday last week has given an impetus to vegetation delightful to behold. Corn and potatoes are looking unusually vigorous, but grass, from a lack of moisture, is reported thin though of excellent quality.—Waterville Mail.

Thomas Collins, an old gentleman about 80 years of age, living in Athens, arose from his bed one night last week and while in a state of somnambulism, fell down stairs, breaking his shoulder and bruising his head badly.

SAD ACCIDENT. A bright little boy about three years old, son of Mr. Nelson Moseer, of West Waterville, was drowned in the mill pond at that place, on the afternoon of Saturday last. Thrice, (says the Mail) has death entered this same family thus suddenly, three children, who went forth full of life and happiness have been borne in to that afflicted mother, dead—the love lights in their eyes quenched and their innocent prattle stilled forever. May God strengthen her.

Mr. Chas. Collins of Anson had his arm nearly cut off while sawing shingles last week.

The Ellsworth American thinks the farmers of Hancock County have done about 25 per cent more farming than ever before. That is the best way in the world to keep "the wolf" from the door in these hard times.

AN UNSAFE PLACE.—The editor of the Bath Organ says that he is informed that the premises of Mr. Given in Brunswick, have been struck by lightning twenty seven times within the last fifteen years. It was on these premises that the pair of oxen were killed by lightning last week.

HORSES KILLED. The Union states that a day or two since, two horses, belonging to Mr. Nicholas Verplast, who lives about two miles from the city, on the Oldin road, near the line of the Penobscot and Kennebec railroad, were run over by the cars and killed.

HEAVY ROBBERY. $850 in money was recently taken from W. J. Barret and D. J. Gross, in Hebron, Oxford County, and no clue to the money or the rogues has yet been obtained.

Twenty persons were baptized at Dover, Me., on Sunday last, by Elder Ames of the Freewill Baptist Society.

FIRE IN FOXCROFT.—On Monday morning last between 3 and 4 o'clock, the dwelling house and out buildings of Mr. Seth Brawn in Foxcroft were consumed by fire, together with all his furniture, farming tools, &c. The fire was discovered in his barn, and was communicated to his house; and such was the rapidity of the flames that its inmates had barely time to escape. Mr. Brawn saved nothing, we understand, except one bed and part of a barrel of flour.—Dover Observer.

SINGULAR FATALITY ON SHIPBOARD.—While the brig Arcadia, of Orland, commanded by Capt. N. M. Berry, of Brockton was lying at St. Jago, some weeks ago, the wife of Mr. Shaw, the first officer, who was accompanying her husband, fell down the hatchway, and was so severely injured that she died. Subsequently Capt. Berry and Mr. Shaw were attacked by fever and died. Capt. Washington Pendleton of Searsport then took charge of the brig, and sailed for Baltimore. We notice by a telegraphic dispatch dated at Baltimore 25th inst., that the Arcadia put back in three days, with the loss of Capt. Pendleton and two seamen.—Belfast Journal.

POSTAGE TO CANADA. A notice in one of the New York papers a few days since stated that letters from the States having ten cent stamps upon them were not received as prepaid in Canada. As the practice had been uniform, says the Albany Argus, a letter was addressed to the Post Office Department asking whether ten cents was the regular postage to Canada, to which the annexed is the answer:

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
APPOINTMENT OFFICE, June 17.

DEAR SIR—Yours of the 15th instant reached me to day; but, unfortunately, without the "enclosure," matter of which it speaks. I can, however, inform you that the postage on a letter to or from Canada, not weighing over half an ounce, is ten cents, which can be prepaid or not, at the option of the sender; but if the former, it must be prepaid in full, no notice being taken of part payment.

HORATIO KING,
First Assistant P. M. Gen.

A WINDY WELL. The Brandon (Mississippi) Republican mentions a curious well discovered in Smith county about a month ago. Mr. Baugh was boring for water in the piney woods, and when he had bored about forty feet "a mighty gushing wind" came out of the hole, which continued for several days. He quit boring and waited to see what would come of it. He placed a board over the hole, and the wind moved a movement in it which can be heard a mile. It blows about a week at a time, and then it begins to "suck in," which continues for about the same time, and then blows again.

FREE NEGROES SOLD AT AUCTION.—In Maryland, the practice is to dispose of free negro thieves at auction. He gives the latest market quotations, furnished by a correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writing from Belair, Harford County:

"The sheriff made public sale to day of five free negroes convicted at the late term and sentenced to be sold under the act of the last session. Bill Dutton, for horse stealing, bro't $490; Bob Sutton, for an assault with intent to kill, brought $125; Dick Taylor, for stealing chickens, brought $149; Jim Cole, for same offence, brought $175; Ben Scott, for stealing wheat, brought $85. The two first named were sold to go out of the State."

The Republicans of the gallant young State of Iowa held a Convention at Iowa City on the 7th ult., Col. Fitz Henry Warren presiding, and nominated a State ticket. There is no election of Governor this year. The Convention is said to have been a very full one—A plain, pungent platform was adopted unanimously. The State election takes place on Tuesday, Oct. 12. William Vandever of Dubuque is the Republican candidate for Congress in the upper District, now represented by Hon. Timothy Davis.

One of the after-dinner facetiae of Mr. Thackeray, is that he once sat at table with the late Angus B. Reach, a clever young Scotchman, who wrote a good deal for the Magazines. Mr. Thackeray having addressed him as "Mr. Reach," the obvious way of pronouncing the name—"No, sir," was the indignant reply "my name is pronounced Ree-ack, in two syllables." Without giving any verbal reply, Thackeray politely handed his neighbor a peach, saying, "Mr. Ree-ack, will you allow me to help you to a pee-ack?"

THE FIRST DEAD HEAD.—Who was the first man recorded in history who didn't pay" said the elder Mathews, as he was handing a theatrical order to a friend. "Why, really, I never gave it a thought," replied the friend.—"Why, Joseph, of course," said Matthews, "did not his brothers put him into the pit for nothing?"

ACCIDENT.—A Mr. Fessett had his shoulder dislocated in this village, on Monday last, by his horse jumping upon him.

ANOTHER.—Mr. Daniel W. Gould of this village, broke his ankle on Saturday afternoon, by falling from a ladder while at work on a building in the rear of Mr. Knox Merrill's house.—Skowhegan Tel.

The Eruption of Mount Vesuvius.

Correspondence of the London Times.

Wishing to have another and more perfect view of the burning mountain, on Saturday last, at about two hours of day, I started from Naples, and after escaping through all the winter accounts of guides, torchbearers, drivers, and a host of other improvised artists, found myself, at or three quarters of an hour's walk, in front of the fire. Early as it was there were many there before me gazing on the wondrous scene. A vast bed of burning metallic looking coke was creeping down over smiling vine yards carrying everything before it. The stream was—should say 800 feet in width—the "Journal" says half a mile—and how long the eye could not calculate; for looking upwards it was lost behind the heights. As to the rate at which it was travelling nothing could be more deceptive. Had it been a narrow channel it would have been comparatively easy to make some decision, but its very grandeur baffled me. However row of the vines, however fell before it—great trees shivered and shook and tossed about as if a heavy wind were blowing, although it was a dead calm, and soon yielded to the destroyer—and march ing continuously over the black fragments of scoriæ on the surface, it came, without ceasing, since mid day it had advanced full 100 paces. There had been a house on a point not far distant, inhabited a few hours before, the fragments of which I saw in the folds of the lava. The poor creatures had taken refuge in a cave formed between the upper and lower strata of an old lava eruption. Behind the shoulder of a hillock stood a handsome villa which had been saved by its position, the grounds belonging to it were all, however, buried under the black masses, and the tenants were standing on the terrace looking down upon the ruin and calculating the probability of the stream reaching them. Though the whole of this enormous bed was in movement, still, running over it, or sometimes under it, were two channels of liquid red hot lava, which had never stopped since they issued from their sources. The blackened bed had become so by an interval of suspension, and was moved on by the immense weight behind. On looking up and around me my wonder was whence could have come this enormous quantity of matter. Could it speak, what a history would it tell, how it had been turning about to and fro under the surface of the land for the last six months upheaving and ruining great cities, destroying cultivated lands and carrying death to many thousands. The speculation was not an idle one, for in less than an hour later, said Prof. Palmieri to me, "I think the period of the earthquakes has now terminated for the present. I connect this eruption with them." I passed through a number of fine young vine yards, where the clustered fruits held out the promise of an abundant vintage. One after another they were shrivelling up and flaming like small torches, while the country people were saving what they could. I pass on to the next point of importance; it is half way up the mountain. I wind and wind up and make a series of short cuts, a step enough to take all the breath out of a man's body, and stands at once on a crag which commands a view of one of the most magnificent spectacles I ever witnessed. The whole stream is visible from the source to the place I have just left, it is coursing down or rather they are coursing down, for there is more than one stream, as rapid as a cascade, in fact they are cascades of as pure liquid fire as can be well conceived. Sometimes they are hidden under the blackened scoriæ, and then they emerge again and run on in their impatient of destruction. It was one of those spectacles so astonishing to look upon that a man seeks in some way to relieve his feelings. He bursts it here silent; he must shout, scream, anything to let off his pent-up excitement, and I suppose that I did that myself. It is now dusk, the Italian night is coming rapidly upon us, the sun has just gone down, and the stars are out in a minute, and we have yet to climb the top, so one pull more. There is a tiny blasé Frenchman, with his "C'est toujours le meme," "And why should we go further"—but we pull him along merrily and physically, and at last arrive at the Hermitage. Behind it is another grand spectacle, perhaps grander even than what we have just described. There is less apparent activity, but the gorge is wider, and the snow out certain manner in which the mass moves on gives us a striking idea of its power. It is 750 feet in width, to calculate its weight by millions of tons would only be trifling with a giant—we might better calculate by the mission the enormous masses which are issuing every minute from the many sources. In all there are 17 and upwards, says Prof. Palmieri, and this fact constitutes one of the striking features of this eruption, as does also the fact that they do not run in one line but are opened in various parts. Also the new feature is the long continued fluidity of the lava, all showing the overgorged state of the mountain and the immense power at work. It was the opinion of the Professor however, that the eruption is on the decline, as no internal grumblings were now heard. The lava had found its outlets, and was now pouring down with rapidity and tranquility of an unobstructed stream. There have been eight earthquakes since the eruption began, local only, perhaps, and the last, as marked in the seismograph of Palmieri, had taken place that morning at 7½ o'clock. Nothing had been removed from the observatory, nor in fact was there any immediate danger, as there was a vast depth behind which was not as yet filled up. An inconvenience might have arisen from a union of the two streams, which were flowing down, and men were always on the watch and to report. On descending we met thousands of people en route from Naples. The paths for miles down were marked by a long line of torches, the gorge down which the lava was coursing looked from a distance like a large crater, the walls of which were irradiated by the fires below. The stream had advanced so rapidly as to cut off our road, so we were compelled to make a long detour. Arrived at the lava bed we stopped to gaze on the scene of ruin and of grandeur, bought some coins imbedded in lava, and falling into the descending line of human beings soon found ourselves in Resina. It is only a short hour's drive to Naples, and grand was the spectacle which the mountain presented from a distance up to the very streets the reflection of two great streams fell across the sea.

On Sunday at mid-day, the eruption seemed to be on the decrease, and the spectacle was not so grand in the evening. Last evening however, there was much greater activity, and this morning the inclosed length of the line of smoke seems to indicate much greater activity. No life has yet been lost; legs and arms have been broken, and a child who had strayed out to the Ottajano side of the lava had fallen asleep, and not until the stream was close up to it had some perceived its dangerous situation, and rescued it at considerable risk to themselves.

A Utah correspondent states that the Peace Commissioners left Camp Scott previous to June 8 for Salt Lake City. It was ascertained beyond a doubt that the Commissioners had no authority to prevent the army from marching into the city, but on the contrary that its entrance into the Valley would be insisted on as a sine qua non.

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 2.

The government is in possession of despatches from Minister Forsyth, who at latest accounts was in correspondence with the Mexican government, on subjects growing out of the tax on property of American citizens. The point for demanding his passports had not yet been reached.

The contract for supplying stationery for the Interior, War and Navy Departments, have been awarded to Blanchard & Mohun; for the State Department, to Wm. F. Bagay; and for the Treasury Department, to Frinkal & Philip. All the successful bidders are residents at Washington.

The whole number of Land Warrants issued in June was 955, to satisfy which will require over 42,000 acres.

The President has taken up his summer residence at the Soldiers' Home, three miles from Washington. The Secretary of War occupies a house on the same premises.

Secretary Thompson is organizing the commission to run the boundary line between Texas and New Mexico. The exploration and survey cannot fail to be extremely difficult, as there are long stretches of country entirely destitute of water and vegetation.

Charles E Lining of S. C. has been appointed an Assistant Surgeon in the Navy, in place of D'Ilem, deceased. Addison M. Smith and Horatio W. Taft of New York, Joseph Palen, J. Edward Holmead and J. W. Shugart, have been appointed Assistant Examiners in the Patent Office.

From New York.

NEW YORK June, 2.

Bark Clifton arrived at this port, from Buenos Ayres May 18. She reports sailing in company with U. S. ships St. Lawrence Falmouth and storeship. Supply supposed to be destined for Rio Janeiro.

The Monroe funeral procession started at 4 o'clock from the Church of the Annunciation in 14th street, to which edifice the remains were removed early this morning. The funeral cortege was large and imposing, the military turning out with full ranks. Immense crowds thronged the streets through which it passed to the City Hall. Many of the buildings along the line of march were dressed in mourning. Flags were at half-mast on the shipping and all the public buildings, and minute guns were fired from various points during the movement of the procession. At half past 5 the procession reached the City Hall where the remains will lay under a guard of honor, until their final removal tomorrow.

ST. LOUIS, July 2

Our despatches from Leavenworth to the 30th ult., by U. S. Express to Boonville, say that telegraphic advices have been received at Fort Leavenworth from Washington, announcing the departure of a special messenger with despatches for Gen. Harney. On the receipt of these dispatches an express will be sent forward immediately to overtake the head quarters, which were last reported within 40 miles of Fort Kearney.

Gov. Denver is expected at the garrison today, and on his arrival will be received with military honors. It is said the governor expresses on the removal of the force from the fort, and does not deem the proper time has arrived for such action.

The notes of the American Bank of Baltimore, reported insolvent, have been extensively circulated in the Territory, and the paper is held in this city to a large amount.

A despatch from St. Josephs, dated the 25d ult., says that the Salt Lake mail arrived here to-day, bringing dates from Salt Lake city to the 12th. Gen. Johnson was to start for the city on the 13 h, with 3000 men in column.—There was quite a diversity of opinion at Camp Scott as to what course the Mormons would pursue in regard to allowing the troops to enter the Valley. The mail party passed about 300 Mormons, with horses and mules and well armed; but they would give no information as to where they were going.

DETROIT, July 2

The propeller North America, engaged in the lighthouse service, took fire off Lake St. Clair last night, and was entirely destroyed. Her crew, which consisted of 12 persons, and 2 passengers jumped overboard and all got safe to the shore. The boat was owned at Cleveland and valued at $22,000, on which it is believed $17,000 is insured.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 2.

The telegraph line beyond this city and the Bay of Bull's Arm, at which point the cable is to be landed, is now in good order. The steamer Porcupine is stationed at the mouth of the bay, and will remain there until the Niagara arrives, when she will pilot her in, and assist in landing the cable. The Niagara is momentarily expected. The weather this evening is dull but not unfavourable for the telegraph fleet.

BALTIMORE, July 2.

A fire broke out in the new Assembly Buildings on the corner of Hanover and Lombard streets. The principal sufferers are Uber and Co., druggists, loss $12,000, insured in the Franklin Co., Philadelphia; and J. S. Robinson liquor dealer, loss $3 000. The Assembly Room was damaged $6,000. The steam fire engine was at the fire and did great service—cause, accidental.

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING, AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry and you will seldom need a Physician.

IS it not a truth that when the feet are cold wet, it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It was a truth that when fathers often wet and dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and cracks, but when this water-proof is rubbed in. By the application of this preservative, it remains soft, and entire impervious to water.

After being engaged for 20 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branch s, and having often troubled with wet feet myself, I resolved to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water proof, but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the astringent properties with which leather is tanned It will not only make leather water proof, but it likewise softens the leather, and is pli

Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years and a large part of that time have worked in a wet Tannery, with my boots constantly in water, and have not had my feet wet during that time. I can therefore in all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market.

Solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U S Patent Office, Washington under Act of 1837,)

76 State Street, Opposite Kilby-st.,

BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents executed on liberal terms, and with despatch Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that inventors is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ABILITY, SKILL AND RELIABILITY, he would add that he has unbounded reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber, during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions, relative to patents. These, besides an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of Patents granted in the United States and Europe render him able beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors

TESTIMONIALS

From the time I occupied the official position of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did I have at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of patents, more business than any other person. There were few, if any persons associated in that capacity, who had as much business before the Patent office, and those were such as required knowledge, skill, fidelity and care. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most learned and most skilful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have confidence in according to him every thing in my power to perform to secure prompt and favorable action in the Patent Office.
